Dickens of a Cook-off 2018 Chili Cook-off

November 17, 2018
Historic Downtown Claremore

Dickens on the Boulevard is a long-running Victorian-themed Christmas festival in the heart of historic downtown Claremore. The event draws thousands of residents and travelers each year. A delicious Chili Cook-off enhances the experience for all!

Contestant Responsibilities:

Contestants are responsible for supplying their own cooking appliances, tables, utensils and all ingredients for an award-winning bowl of chili. Contestants will be provided a 10'x10' space located on a concrete surface. No electricity will be provided. Contestants will need to bring their own tent for shade and are responsible for securing the tent in place - no stakes are allowed on the street.

Location:

Missouri Avenue between Will Rogers Boulevard and the alley to the north on the street. The streets will be blocked off to through traffic.

Additional Details:

Contestants are asked to provide 2.5 gallons of chili to provide enough for judges and public tasting. Additional chili may be cooked as a fundraiser during Open Sales after 7 p.m. only. This is not an International Chili Society sanctioned cook-off. Registration should be turned in by Nov. 9. Space is limited.

Awards:
